Fiscal Year 2020: Past Fiscal Year (2020) Year 3 of the current grant activity continued initial projects at the State level of a multi-state remote sensing education, outreach and research grant activity along with overarching consortium activities such as annual meetings and reporting requirements. Focus included regional and topical working groups to address various needs and issues at the regional, state and local levels. Projects focused on data access and training, educational efforts integrating remote sensing into more K-18 curricula and determining local communities' remote sensing requirements to address timely issues such as water quantity and quality, hazard mitigation, and resource management. This work was able to continue even through the pandemic. For each Fiscal Year, award is granted to the nationwide consortium, including sub-tier awards to 39 states with oversight by designated state-level PIs or Coordinators. Projects at the State level are planned to continue in follow-on, optional years of this grant, subject to Program management approval and availability of funds. Fiscal Year 2021: Proposed projects at the State level of this multi-state consortium are planned to progress in follow-on, optional years of this grant, subject to management approval and availability of funds. EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

2020 FY2020 covers Year 3 of the current grant (the National Land Remote Sensing Education, Outreach and Research Activity (NLRSEORA)) to the AmericaView consortium, funded by the USGS National Land Imaging Program. Year 3 of this potential 5-year competitively-awarded funding opportunity continues support of high-impact project activities at the State and local levels to expand remote sensing science through education, outreach and research for environmental monitoring. Projects support capacity building on the use of remote sensing data to assess the effects of land use and land cover change on water quality, quantity and utility; societal adaptation and phenology; natural resource management, disaster risk reduction and public health-related issues such as identifying potential indicators relating to harmful algal blooms. Approved projects addressed the grant's objectives of defining data requirements at the state and local level, providing remote sensing education and outreach at the K-18 levels, and promoting remote sensing science research at the undergraduate and graduate levels to train future workforce candidates in this constantly-evolving, highly technical field. 2021 Current Fiscal Year: Projections (2021) The Program has not yet selected projects for FY2021 funding for year 4 (option year 3) of the current grant. Program anticipates continued funding of projects, subject to availability of funds, that further support the goals and objectives of the National Land Remote Sensing Education, Outreach and Research grant activity. The Program expects a continued focus on remote sensing science and engineering education and outreach, and the conduct of critical applied research. 2022 The Program has not yet selected projects for FY2022 funding in Year 5 (option year 4) of the current grant. Program anticipates continued funding of projects, subject to availability of funds, that further support the goals and objectives of the National Land Remote Sensing Education, Outreach and Research grant activity. The Program expects a continued focus on remote sensing science and engineering education and outreach, and the conduct of critical applied research. A final FY2022 budget is yet to be determined.

EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

2020 The lidar collection for the 2020 Alabama Multi-Region Lidar Project will result in updated and enhanced elevation coverage for 17 counties within the State of Alabama. Furthermore, the Alabama Geographic Information office (AGIO) and the State of Georgia Geographic Information Office have been working together to maximize the effectiveness of their programs by designing their project areas to help achieve contiguous coverage along both States' borders. This ultimately satisfies the priorities of all levels of government from local, state, federal as well as the general user community. In addition, the majority of the counties selected in this effort would not be able to acquire lidar due to the cost. This project is permitting the state an opportunity to share in the cost for areas that would not acquire it otherwise. 2021 High Quality Lidar for the California San Joaquin Valley Floor: This project will acquire high quality lidar data over more than 11,500 sq mi of the CA San Joaquin Valley floor. The acquired data will support initiatives across state, Federal, local, and non-governmental stakeholders. The data will be valuable for developing detailed analyses of surface topography and for hydrologic mapping, including of fine scale drainage patterns such as the agricultural landscapes across the valley. Information derived from the data will improve understanding of the landscapes characteristics including surficial geology and soils mapping with direct applicability to groundwater recharge and geologic and flooding hazards. Additional uses cases include providing baseline data to support analyses of land subsidence and uplift, transportation and water conveyance infrastructure, agricultural production, and human structures. 2022 Program has not selected projects for funding.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

Criteria for judging applications will include scientific excellence and relevance to the mission of the National Geospatial Program of the USGS. Other factors include geographic location and areal extent, value to potential partners, technical qualifications of the recipients, and amount of matching funds.

Fiscal Year 2020: Past Fiscal Year (2020) FY2020 Overview: 92 Research Projects; 40 datasets and tools and 180 Science Articles. In Fiscal Year 2020 (October 2019-September 2020), the National and Regional Climate Adaptation Science Centers (CASC) worked closely with partners and stakeholders to accomplish a multitude of science-based achievements. Some highlights include creating a framework for measuring the ability of plants and animals to adapt to climate change, integrating climate science with local knowledge in Hawaii, providing climate-related training for students and professionals, incorporating scenario planning into national monument adaptation planning and more. Through these activities, the CASC program continues to find new ways to create and share climate adaptation science with resource managers and users. Some of the projects included: Climate Vulnerability of Aquatic Species to Changing Stream Temperatures and Wildfire Across the Yukon and Kuskokwim River Basins, Alaska The Influence of Stream Flow Patterns on Juvenile Salmon Growth in Southeast Alaska Science to Inform the Management of Mangrove Ecosystems Undergoing Sea Level Rise at Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge, Sanibel Island, Florida Understanding Impacts of Sea-Level Rise and Land Management on Critical Coastal Marsh Habitat Fiscal Year 2021: In Fiscal Year 2021, the National and Regional Climate Adaptation Science Centers (CASC) Program expects to initiate approximately 70 science research projects. Research is on-going during Fiscal Year 2021. Obligations for the CASC science projects will be made under the program activity via grants or cooperative agreement awards through the USGS Office of Acquisitions and Grants (OAG). The annual report for Fiscal Year 2021 will be available following the end of the fiscal year and provide the current year accomplishments. Fiscal Year 2022: The National and Regional Climate Adaptation Science Centers (CASCs) will continue to bring together scientific researchers with natural and cultural resource managers and local communities to help fish, wildlife, waters, and lands across the country adapt to changing conditions through research of the expansion of invasive species to wildfire, from drought to sea-level rise, and new and evolving challenges for ecosystems across the nation.

EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

2020 State and Local Preservation Grants The HPF grants fund preservation programs at state offices and ensure support of local preservation with a required 10% pass through to Certified Local Governments via competitive subgrants.

Examples of the diversity of work accomplished with this annual funding include: In Schoharie, NY, a local dentist, Dr. Hazem Elbially, used a combination of state and federal historic preservation tax credits to rehabilitate the historic Marshall D. Bice House, which was originally built in 1868 alongside the Shoharie Creek and sustained flood damage in 2011. Coupling tax credits with assistance from FEMA, repairs and rehabilitation involved listing in the state and national registers of historic places, state and federal historic rehabilitation tax credits, and a careful design approach that balanced the historic property with the needs of an active dental practice, including ADA. The Tennessee Historical Commission used HPF funding to assist the City of Clarksville, a Certified Local Government since 1985, with a survey of their downtown historic resources. One of the sites documented and surveyed was the Customs House, built in 1898, and now serving as the city's cultural center and museum. Tribal Preservation Grants The HPF grants fund tribal preservation programs, assists tribes in the preservation of their cultural heritage, and promotes the protection of historically significant sites. Examples of the diversity of work accomplished with this annual funding include: The Reno-Sparks Indian Colony THPO used the traditional art of Steve Nighthawk to produce a COVID-19 Public Art Health Safety Message (Mural) on tribal lands. The THPO contracted with a photographer to show the painting creation from beginning to end, along with a short video, to preserve this traditional art and promote cultural awareness for the Tribe. The Inchelium Complex Fires, started on the Colville Reservation and burned over 18,000 acres, threatening sites like Julia, a historic mining site from the 1900s. The Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservations THPO staff worked as part of the Structure Protection Crew to help with the wrapping process of historic sites and ensuring they were not disturbed more than necessary. 2021 Based on a designated formula each states, tribes and territories receive funding which is then distributed in sub-grants based. Projects funded are approved by the State, Tribal, Territorial Historic Preservation Office.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

Specific evaluation criteria are included in the funding announcements posted on www.grants.gov. Each State selects sub-grant proposals for funding in accordance with its own priorities within federal requirements.

EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

2020 Projects across all US states and territories include the purchase of lands for public recreational use. Seventy-five percent of the total funds obligated have gone to locally sponsored projects to provide close-to-home recreation opportunities that are readily accessible to America's youth, adults, senior citizens and the physically or mentally challenged. In addition to the thousands of smaller recreation areas, grants have helped to acquire and develop new parks of statewide or national significance such as the Allagash Wilderness Waterway (Maine), Liberty State Park (New Jersey), the Willamette River Greenway (Oregon), Platte River Park (Denver), Herman Brown Park (Houston), and Illinois Beach State Park (Chicago). The State side of LWCF is administered by the State and Local Assistance Programs Division.

Outdoor Recreation Plan. Beyond this, the selection of projects is made by the State Liaison Officer of each State who is responsible for the administration of the 15.916 program in his State. Each State has its own selection process and project rating system, which is approved by NPS.

Upon their return to Smith River, a ceremony will be held to welcome the cultural items home, and the funerary objects will be respectfully reinterred. Grants to Fund Consultation and Documentation Twenty-four consultation and documentation grants will fund museum and tribal staff travel, consultation meetings, and research, all in support of the repatriation process. In Kodiak, Alaska, the Alutiiq Museum and Archaeological Repository will undertake the Angilluki (Return Them) Project in collaboration with the Kodiak Alutiiq/Sugpiaq Repatriation Commission. AUTHORIZATION:

Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S. Code 47 and 170(h), as amended; Public Law No: 115-97, 131 Stat. 2054, Sec. 13402 (December 22, 2017); 54 U.S.C. 101702(a) Transfer of Service Appropriated Funds,

OBJECTIVES:

Commonly known as the Rehabilitation Tax Credit or the Historic Tax Credit, the program provides a 20-percent federal tax credit to property owners who undertake a substantial rehabilitation of a historic building in a business or income-producing use while maintaining its historic character. The credit promotes historic preservation and community revitalization through the private investment in the rehabilitation of historic buildings.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Advisory Services and Counseling, Advisory Services on Compliance

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The program provides a 20-percent federal tax credit for the substantial rehabilitation of historic buildings. The National Park Service (NPS) administers the certification program for the Department of the Interior. The NPS does not award tax credits, but certifies to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) whether a building qualifies as a certified historic structure and whether an undertaken rehabilitation project qualifies as a certified rehabilitation, and is therefore eligible to claim the credit. The credit is claimed at the completion of the project, when the rehabilitated building is placed in service, as part of the property owners tax filing with the IRS (Form 3468). Costs eligible for the credit are limited to Qualified Rehabilitation Expenditures or QREs, generally only those costs that are directly related to the repair or improvement of structural and architectural features of the historic building as well as some eligible soft costs. The scope of review for the rehabilitation project includes not only the work that qualifies as an eligible expense, but also all other work to the building and its site and environment, including work to other buildings, new construction, additions, and any site improvements on the historic property.

Applicant Eligibility:

Anyone/general public; For the rehabilitation tax credit: private owners of commercial and other income-producing historic buildings held for investment purposes. For the conservation easement deduction; private owners of historic buildings proposed as the subject of charitable easement donations.

The National Park Service must certify to the Internal Revenue Service that the building qualifies as a certified historic structure and that the undertaken rehabilitation project qualifies as a certified rehabilitation for the project to be eligible to claim the tax credit. The NPS also certifies that a historic property contributes to the significance of a historic district for the purposes of a property owner donating a conservation easement. These certifications are made as part of the programs application process. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Pre-application coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372. The program is administered by the National Park Service in partnership with the State Historic Preservation Offices (SHPOs). The SHPOs are the first point of contact for property owners wishing to use the tax credits. SHPOs can help determine whether a historic building is eligible to claim the credits, provide guidance before beginning a rehabilitation project, and advise on the application requirements and whether proposed rehabilitation work meets the Secretary of the Interiors Standards for Rehabilitation.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The Historic Preservation Certification Application (Form 10-168) is in three parts: Part 1 Evaluation of Significance for a determination that the building is a certified historic structure; Part 2 Description of Rehabilitation for preliminary certification

The NPS makes all certification decisions. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit applications and obtain Part 1 and Part 2 approvals prior to beginning any work. Owners who begin work without prior NPS review and approval do so at their own risk.

Award Procedure:

The program is jointly administered by the Department of the Interior (DOI) and the Department of the Treasury. The National Park Service (NPS) administers the program on behalf of DOI. The NPS does not award the tax credits, but certifies to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) whether a building qualifies as a certified historic structure and whether an undertaken rehabilitation project qualifies as a certified rehabilitation, and is therefore eligible to claim the credit. The credit is claimed at the completion of the project, when the rehabilitated building is placed in service, as part of the property owners tax filing with the IRS (Form 3468). The NPS certification process is administered in partnership with the State Historic Preservation Offices (SHPOs) in a three-part application process. The SHPOs are the first point of contact for property owners wishing to use the tax credits and to find out more about the program requirements. Applications are submitted to the SHPO, which reviews the application and forwards it with a recommendation to the NPS. The NPS makes all certification decisions.

2020 One project was funded to become a new data provider to the NGWMN. The agency was funded to select sites and set up web services to enable them to share data with the NGWMN. Other projects supported maintaining the connection between agency databases and the NGWMN. The remaining projects support agencies to enhance their contribution to the NGWMN through filling data gaps at sites, performing well maintenance or repairs, or drilling new wells to fill gaps in the NGWMN. 2021 One new data provider project was funded. The agency was funded to select sites and set up web services to enable them to share data with the NGWMN. Other projects supported maintaining the connection between agency databases and the NGWMN. The remaining projects support agencies to enhance their contribution to the NGWMN through filling data gaps at sites, performing well maintenance or repairs, drilling new wells to fill gaps in the NGWMN, or enhancing continuous water-level data collection. 2022 Similar projects to those funding in the past two years are expected to be supported in Fiscal Year 2022.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

Each objective applied for within a proposal will be reviewed according to four Criteria: Proposal Quality, Relevance, Technical Quality, and Budget. A score of 1 to 10 is given for each criterion. Proposals will be reviewed and scored by the NGWMN Program Board. The Program Board will make funding recommendations on each proposal to the USGS.

15.981 Water Use and Data Research

FEDERAL AGENCY:

US GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, INTERIOR, DEPARTMENT OF THE

AUTHORIZATION:

Public Law 111-11, Subtitle F Secure Water: Section 9508 Water Availability and Use Assessment Program.,

OBJECTIVES:

To support State water resource agencies in developing water use and availability datasets that are integrated with each appropriate dataset developed or maintained by the USGS or that integrate any water use or water availability dataset of the State water resource agency into each appropriate dataset developed or maintained by the USGS. The Water Use Data and Research program will allow State Water Resource agencies to improve the collection and reporting frequency of water use categories, including the inclusion of categories that have been discontinued in the past due to limited resources. Data collection, and improvement efforts, as well as research conducted will complement priorities and investigations carried by Federal, State, and Local Governments, and by private industry in water availability assessments for human and ecological uses.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements (Discretionary Grants)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Funding will be used to support State Water Resource agencies in improving data collection techniques and methods, data delivery and management, and data integration with each appropriate dataset developed or maintained by the USGS. Funding for each State cannot exceed $250,000 cumulatively over the length of the program.

Applicant Eligibility:

State: Proposals will be accepted from state agencies that collect and maintain water use data and databases. Various elements of the data that are required for the Water Use Data and Research (WUDR) program are often available from different agencies within a state; however only one agency is eligible to submit a proposal for the program. We ask that State agencies collaborate in this instance, and States may submit a single proposal that covers the work of multiple state agencies. Coordination of agencies within a state is strongly encouraged to avoid proposals that overlap.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Private nonprofit institution/organization; State; Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments; State, Federally recognized Indian Tribal, and local governments, public nonprofit institutions/organizations, private nonprofit institutions/organizations, profit organizations, industry and public decision makers, research scientists, engineers, and the general public will ultimately benefit from data made available through the program.

OBJECTIVES:

The purpose of the Research and Evaluation (R&E) Program is to further develop and make maximum use of the evidence base for approaches to combatting domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking. By generating more knowledge about strategies for serving victims and holding offenders accountable, communities that benefit from VAWA funding will be better equipped to align their work with practices that are known to be effective, and they will be more capable of generating empirical knowledge on the efficacy of new and promising ways of doing things. Because OVW has very limited funds to support research and evaluation, this program prioritizes topics for which a stronger evidence base would help OVW grantees use federal funds most effectively.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

OVW is interested in funding research and evaluation to generate knowledge in the six areas of study listed below:1. Victims needs. How victimization and its aftermath affect peoples lives, especially people who are marginalized; and what they need to cope, heal, and achieve safety and justice2.Cultures, disparities, and access. Ways that cultural differences and social inequalities matter in terms of where and to whom people go for help, and whether people are able to access justice and get services that are useful to them3.Justice. Ways the justice system can effectively pursue and achieve justice in cases involving domestic/dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking; with justice broadly understood to include autonomy for victims, accountability for offenders, procedural fairness for all, and restorative justice⁴. Impact. Short- and long-term impact of the justice systems response, victim services, and other VAWA-funded interventions on victim safety and offender accountability⁵. Indicators of success. 16.033 Collaborative Mental Health and Anti-Recidivism Initiative

FEDERAL AGENCY:

OJP BUREAU OF JUSTICE ASSISTANCE, JUSTICE, DEPARTMENT OF

ASSISTANCE LISTINGS DESCRIPTIONS

AUTHORIZATION:

Title Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2020, , Public Law 116-93

OBJECTIVES:

Prison populations across the country have been severely impacted by the increased incarceration of individuals with mental illness. Individuals with mental illness are often associated with higher recidivism rates due to their limited access to mental health and other support services upon release. In many states, a shortage of mental health resources directly correlates to the overcrowding of prison systems. Under this initiative, applicants can use funding to establish a statewide pilot program that partners with the appropriate agencies within the state, such as the Department of Mental Health/Behavioral Health and or Department of Corrections, to establish a collaborative prison anti-recidivism effort to provide comprehensive care before, during, and after incarceration for persons with serious mental illness, with a goal of reducing recidivism.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Applicants can pursue the following objectives: Ensure that individuals with serious mental illness will receive comprehensive care before, during, and after incarceration with a focus on recidivism reduction to include addressing their mental health and wellness needs, and, if needed, including addressing long-term assistance such as mental and health care in the community with their mental health needs. Reduce crime committed by, and improve outcomes for, individuals with mental illness. Identify a target population for the pilot program using a collaborative, data-driven process that responds to local circumstances. Assemble a team that has the authority to implement the required elements of the program, including the decision-making authority to assess and effectively intervene with the target population. Evaluate the efficacy of the pilot program to reduce recidivism and improve outcomes for individuals with mental illness in the criminal justice system.

16.309 Law Enforcement Assistance National Instant Criminal Background Check System

(NICS).

FEDERAL AGENCY:

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, JUSTICE, DEPARTMENT OF AUTHORIZATION:

none,

OBJECTIVES:

To provide a system so that any Federal Firearm Licensee (FFL) could receive an immediate determination by telephone or by other electronic means, on whether receipt of a firearm and/or explosive by a prospective buyer would violate Federal or State laws.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Information, Provision of Specialized Services

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The NICS Operations Center conducts NICS background checks by analyzing and evaluating criminal history records to determine whether the transfer of a firearm to an individual may violate State or Federal law. The staff at the Operations Center provides technical and operational support to users, provides customer service to FFLs and State Point of Contacts (POCs), processes appeals of denied transactions, and prepares management and statistical reports on the operation of the NICS.

Applicant Eligibility:

Public nonprofit institution/organization (includes institutions of higher education and hospitals); Other public institution/organization; Anyone/general public; All persons purchasing firearms.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Federal; Anyone/general public; The Federal Firearm Licensees and American public.

Credentials/Documentation:

Initial request for services must be from a licensed and enrolled FFL. For checks performed by the FBI, FFLs may contact the NICS Section by telephone via a toll-free number or, electronically by the NICS E-Check via the Internet. The FFLs will provide the required descriptive information requested on the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives Form 4473 and each background check is assigned a unique NICS Transaction Number. If a NICS background check results in no matching records, the transfer will be a proceed. If one or more matching records are found, a NICS Legal Instruments Examiner (Examiner) will review the record(s) to determine if the subject of the record may be identical with the prospective purchaser and to determine if the record contains state and/or federal firearm prohibitive criteria which may prohibit the transfer of the firearm. If it is determined that prohibitive criteria exists, the NICS Examiner will advise the FFL to deny the firearm transaction. If potentially prohibitive criteria exists and more information is required in order to make the determination, the NICS Examiner will advise the FFL to delay the firearm transaction. When a transaction is delayed, the NICS Examiner begins extensive research on the potential prohibitor. The NICS Examiner will contact local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies and courts to resolve questions about an individual who appears to be prohibited from purchasing or possessing a firearm, as well as to request clarification regarding information in a prior record or disposition. When the research is complete, the NICS Examiner calls the FFL and gives a decision on the firearm transaction. Individuals who are denied the purchase of a firearm will be advised by the FFL of the process for appealing the denial decision if he/she believes it is incorrect. Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. AEAP: Whereas the previously submitted proposal letter, budget, and budget narrative were key factors in determining eligibility for funding, they were submitted prior to the posting of a solicitation. Application materials submitted electronically through GMS in response to either the assistance or compensation solicitation become permanent parts of the award file. Thus, it will be necessary to resubmit the proposal letter, budget, and budget narrative documents as part of the application package. Applications will be accepted following an incident of terrorism or mass violence in accordance with the timetable set forth in the AEAP Guidelines. There are two factors that determine the application submission requirements for the AEAP: (1) the applicant status, i.e., government agency (Federal, State, or local), non-governmental organization, or victim service organization; and (2) the type of support requested, i.e., crisis response, consequence management, criminal justice, victim compensation, technical assistance (nonmonetary assistance). Application requirements are listed below. Application requirements for State crime victim compensation programs - Funding will be made available to State crime victim compensation programs in response to an incident of terrorism or intentional mass criminal violence within the United States in the form of a grant. Requests for funding from State crime victim compensation programs may be made at any time in the aftermath of an incident and should include: (1) Responses to the questions or issues raised in the AEAP Compensation Solicitation ; (2) Proposal letter ; (3) Budget; (4) Budget narrative; and (5) SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance and applicable assurances and forms.. Application requirements for all other recipients of funds -All other applicants seeking Antiterrorism Emergency Reserve support are required to submit: (1) Responses to the questions or issues raised in the AEAP Assistance Solicitation; (2) Proposal letter; (3) Budget; (4) Budget narrative; and (5) SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance and applicable assurances and forms. While no direct funding is available, OVC may provide its own consultants to meet the training and technical assistance needs of applicants. Training and technical assistance may be requested by submitting a letter describing the nature of the problem; the type of expertise or assistance needed; the duration of assistance; and the projected outcomes of the technical assistance or training. See OVC guidelines published in the Federal Register (Vol. 67, No. 21, Thursday, January 31, 2002) for additional information on application requirements for the AEAP. ITVERP: Step 1: Identify the type of application you are applying for by marking the appropriate type at the top of the application form. In addition, a supplemental sheet must be filled out by applicants. Sections B, F and H should be answered by all applicants; section G should be answered by Itemized and Supplemental applicants only. Detailed instructions are included. Step 2: If you believe that you are an eligible victim of a "designated" international terrorism event, please use the following forms and information to prepare your application for reimbursement. Required Documentation: A victim is required to submit documentation that provides proof of identity, citizenship, employment, and damage/injury sustained during the international terrorism event. A victim's family member or representative is required to submit documentation of his/her relationship to the victim plus medical information or a death certificate as appropriate, in addition to the items named above. In all cases, receipts for expenses incurred in the recovery process will be required. If any of the required documents have been destroyed and are unavailable from any other source, you must provide and certify a list of destroyed documents and how each would apply to your ITVERP application.

Award Procedure:

AEAP: Upon receipt and internal review of a complete application, it is the intention of OVC to notify applicants of funding decision within 5 business days or as soon as practicable. The applicant may be notified by telephone, Internet or facsimile. ITVERP: After review of each application, the Director shall determine the eligibility of the victim or representative and the amount, if any, eligible for reimbursement, specifying the reasons for such determination and the findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting it. A copy of the determination shall be mailed to the claimant at his last known address. .

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional location, as appropriate for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Other. AEAP: It is OVC's intention to make a funding decision within 5 business days of receipt of a complete application or as soon as practicable. ITVERP: It is OVCs intention to review and process payments as soon as practicable. For itemized and supplemental claims, range of approval/disapproval is dependant upon receipt of an official determination of a reasonable indication of an act of international terrorism from the Assistant Attorney General of National Security for a particular event. Processing time is also dependant upon timely response by claimants of any outstanding documents or information required to process claim applications. Claimants may apply for an interim emergency payment, prior to a determination under Section 94.21(a). If the Director determines that such payment is necessary to avoid or mitigate substantial hardship that may result from delaying reimbursement until complete and final consideration of an application, such payment may be made to cover immediate expenses such as those of medical care, funeral and burial, short-term lodging, and emergency transportation.

Appeals:

Other. For both programs, hearing by the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs.

Grantees participate in educational initiatives, conferences, peer-to-peer consultations, and targeted assistance that allow them to learn from experts and one another about how to overcome obstacles and incorporate promising practices in their efforts to address violence against women. USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Funds under this program shall be used by the States for awards of compensation benefits to crime victims, with the following exception: States may retain up to 5 percent of their total grant for administrative and training purposes. Formula grant funds to an eligible State crime victim compensation program is based on 60 percent of the amounts States expended during the fiscal year preceding the year of collections for the Crime Victims Fund, other than amounts awarded for property damage. If the sums available in the Fund for grants under this program are insufficient to provide grants of 60 percent as provided above, grants from the sums available will be made to each eligible crime victim compensation program so that all such programs receive the same percentage of the amounts awarded by such programs during the preceding fiscal year, other than amounts awarded for property damage. A crime victim compensation program is an eligible crime victim compensation program if (1) such program is operated by a State and offers compensation to victims and survivors of victims of criminal violence, including drunk driving and domestic violence for: (A) medical expenses attributable to a physical injury resulting from a compensable crime, including expenses for mental health counseling and care; (B) loss of wages attributable to a physical injury

Any amount of crime victim compensation that the applicant receives through a crime victim compensation program under this section shall not be included in the income of the applicant until the total amount of assistance that the applicant receives from all such programs is sufficient to fully compensate the applicant for losses suffered as a result of the crime. As used in this section; (1) the term "property damage" does not include damage to prosthetic devices, eyeglasses or other corrective lenses, or dental devices; (2) the term "medical expenses" includes, to the extent provided under the eligible crime victim compensation program, expenses for eyeglasses and other corrective lenses, for dental services and devices and prosthetic devices, and for services rendered in accordance with a method of healing recognized by the law of the State; (3) the term "compensable crime" means a crime the victims of which are eligible for compensation under the eligible crime victim compensation program, and includes crimes involving driving while intoxicated and domestic violence; and (4) the term "State" includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and any other possession or territory of the United States.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Allowable uses of funds are outlined in the Drug Court Program Guideline available from the Department of Justice Response Center. Assistance can be used by assisting states, local court, and tribal nonviolent adult and juvenile offenders by involving early and continuous judicial supervision over these offenders. The administration of appropriate incentives and sanctions will help to reduce recidivism and substance misuse among high-risk participants with substance use disorders and increase their likelihood of successful rehabilitation. Drug Court Programs under Title V will be for nonviolent adult and juvenile offenders and involve early and continuous judicial supervision over the nonviolent substance use disorder offenders and the integrated administration of sanctions and services including: (1) mandatory and random drug testing for the use of controlled substances or other addictive substances during any period of supervised release or probation; (2) evidence-based substance use disorder treatment for each participant according to need; (3) diversion, probation, or other supervised release involving the possibility of prosecution, confinement, or incarceration based on noncompliance with program requirements; and (4) programmatic offender management and aftercare services. PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Fiscal Year 2020: BJA has continued to champion MAT in a variety of training and technical assistance programs. Federally funded RSAT prison and jail RSAT programs continue to take the lead in expanding correctional medication-assisted treatment programs across the United States. Not only are the number of prisons and jails offering MAT continuing to increase every month, but more and more are expanding MAT access to multiple opioid medications, including methadone and buprenorphine as well as naltrexone. BJA has concentrated in the past year on both promoting expansion of MAT to include both agonist as well as antagonist medications and to expand jail MAT programs to persons detained pretrial in jails, more than 10 million each year, as well as those committed after sentence. For example, the RSAT program in the jail serving Berkshire County in western Massachusetts which had pioneered MAT featuring injectable naltrexone for sentenced persons, is now expanding its MAT to include the many more persons detained for shorter pretrial periods and is providing access to agonist medications as well as antagonist. It also now provides, consistent with the developing research, multiple naltrexone injections prior to release to maximize craving reductions before persons reenter the community. There are now more than 135 jails and prisons systems in 32 states and the District of Columbia that offer at least two opioid medications, up from just 35 two years ago. Many directly benefited from BJAs extensive training and technical assistance in implementing these programs. BJA continued its highly effective prison and jail MAT mentor host site trainings, allowing 26 corrections teams from 18 states to visit model MAT programs in the Middlesex House of Correction and the Philadelphia Department of Prisons. Both of these host sites not only provide participants with access to all opioid medications but also offer robust reentry and aftercare programming after release.

These matches are expected to include three categories: 1) those positively identified (matched) as qualifying undocumented criminal aliens; 2) those unknowns and 3) those positively identified as non-criminal aliens. Applicants will be given credit for a percentage of inmates whose eligibility cannot be determined through positive identification or "match," but have valid foreign countries of birth. Payments will be based on the days of incarceration for the verified number of aliens incarcerated by each applicant. Payments are granted by the Director of the Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, Department of Justice. 16.607 Bulletproof Vest Partnership Program

(BVP),

FEDERAL AGENCY:

OFFICE OF JUSTICE PROGRAMS, JUSTICE, DEPARTMENT OF AUTHORIZATION:

Title Bulletproof Vest Partnership Grant Act of 1998, as amended, , Statue 112-512, Public Law 105-181, 34 USC Code 10531-10533. Title Bulletproof Vest Partnership Grant Program Reauthorization Act of 2015, , Public Law 114-155, Title Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2020, , Statue 133-2317, 2409, Public Law 116-93, Title Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, , Statue 134-1182, 1258, Public Law 116-260

OBJECTIVES:

The goal of the BVP program is to provide up to 50% of the cost of armored vests for state, local and tribal jurisdictions.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Direct Payments for Specified Use

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The program pays up to 50 percent of the total cost of each vest order. Total cost includes the cost of the vests, vest carriers, attachments, inserts, and covers considered integral or essential for its proper care, use, and wearability, shipping, handling, fitting charges, and applicable taxes. The total invoiced price, after all vendor and prompt payment discounts have been deducted, is what the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) uses to determine the Federal match. This program only allows the purchase of body armor that has been tested and found to comply with applicable ballistic and stab standards promulgated by the National Institute of Justice's (NIJ) Standard 0101.06 Ballistic Resistance of Police Body Armor. In FY 2001, stab-resistant body armor was also included in the program as an allowable purchase.

Applicant Eligibility:

State (includes District of Columbia, public institutions of higher education and hospitals); Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments; U.S. Territories and possessions; Only chief executives of jurisdictions (or their designees) may apply for funds. Jurisdictions are defined as general purpose units of local government (e.g., cities, towns, townships, boroughs, counties, etc.), Federally-recognized Indian tribes, the 50 State governments, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands. The chief executive of the jurisdiction registers on-line, submits the jurisdiction application, and requests payment for completed vest orders.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

State; Only law enforcement officers may receive vests through this program. According to the Act, "law enforcement officer" means any officer, agent, or employee of a State, unit of local government, or an Indian tribe authorized by law or by a government agency to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, or investigation of any violation of criminal law, or authorized by law to supervise sentenced criminal offenders. Eligible officers may be full-time, part-time, paid or volunteer. In order to receive BVP funds, jurisdictions must certify, during the application process, that all law enforcement agencies benefitting from the BVP Program have a written "mandatory wear" policy in effect. FAQ: <https://ojp.gov/bvpbasi/docs/FAQsBVP MandatoryWearPolicy.pdf> The BVP Reauthorization Act of 2015 included a provision that states that BJA may give preferential consideration to BVP recipients that provide armor vests to law enforcement officers that are uniquely fitted for such officers, including vests uniquely fitted to individual female law enforcement officers. A certification section has been added to the 2017 application (in the BVP system) stating the jurisdictions and law enforcement agency are aware of and will comply with this requirement.

Credentials/Documentation:

Eligible jurisdictions must be general purpose units of local government, Federally-recognized Indian tribes, the 50 state governments, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands. The validity of the on-line registration process is verified through independent reviews which may include certification by the banking institutions serving the jurisdiction, the U.S. Census Bureau, and agencies within the U.S. Department of Justice. 2 CFR 200, Sub-part E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Pre-application coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372. This is an Internet-based program. The jurisdiction is required to complete and submit an on-line registration form, providing information about the jurisdiction's chief executive officer, program contact person, and electronic banking information. The registration process is handled through the program's web site <http://ojp.gov/bvpbasi/home.html>. Only those jurisdictions with approved registrations are permitted to make application.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The jurisdiction submits the application to BJA via the Internet web site <http://vests.ojp.gov>. On-line instructions guide the jurisdiction through the application process. Law enforcement agencies or agencies with law enforcement functions which meet the Act's definition, will assist in completing the jurisdiction's on-line application by indicating the types, numbers, and costs of vests they intend to order. Only those jurisdictions that complete and submit applications will be eligible for matching funds from BJA. Notice of Funding Opportunities (NOFO) for this listing will be posted on Grants.gov.

Award Procedure:

Applications received by BJA are reviewed for completeness, accuracy, and compliance with all program requirements. Each application is then checked against the availability of funds to cover up to 50 percent of the application's total cost, in keeping with established criteria for program fund allocation. When all checks are complete and the application approved, the jurisdiction is notified through e-mail that the necessary funds have been obligated.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional location, as appropriate for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Other. A minimum of 15 working days may be required for complete registration validation, although jurisdictions and law enforcement agencies will have immediate access to certain program components during this validation process. A minimum of 60 working days may be required after the program closes for approval of the jurisdiction's application for funding. A minimum of 25 working days may be required for the electronic transfer of funds from the U.S. Treasury to the jurisdiction's bank account, once the request for funds has been received, reviewed, and approved by the Office of Justice Programs.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory Formula: Title 34, Subtitle I, Chapter 101, Part , Subpart .Public Law 90351, title I, 2501, as amended. Matching Requirements: Percent: 50%.

Requirement: Matching requirements are voluntary. The program requires that each applicant jurisdiction be responsible for providing at least 50 percent of the cost of each vest purchased. Tribal governments may use Federal funds to provide this match; all other jurisdictions must use nonfederal match funds. Nonfederal fund sources include State and/or local jurisdiction revenues, private or personal funds, and contributions from insurance or workman's compensation consortiums. Asset forfeiture funds may also be used to meet the jurisdiction's matching requirement. Beginning in FY 2002, changes (Bulletproof Vest Partnership Act of 2000; Public Law 106-517) gives preference to small jurisdictions (those populations below 100,000) guaranteeing them the full 50 percent match payment before payments are calculated and approved for larger jurisdictions. MOE requirements are not applicable to this assistance listing.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Jurisdictions with approved applications must request the federal match no later than August 31st of the second federal fiscal year following the end of the federal fiscal year in which their application was approved. In other words, the jurisdiction has two years beyond the year of their application to request payments for vests contained in that application. Payments of the federal match will be made whenever the jurisdiction indicates that at least part of the approved vest order was received and invoiced. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: other Payments and transactions are subject to audits by the General Accounting Office, Department of Justice's Office of the Inspector General, state or local government auditors, and auditors from independent public accounting firms. Jurisdictions must follow their local procurement policies and procedures, including maintenance of reliable and accurate accounting systems, record keeping, and systems of internal control.

For example, BJS plans to collect data on law enforcement training academies to provide national statistics about recruits, curricula, staff, and resources. BJS also plans to support efforts to develop a statistical infrastructure around victim services and address major gaps in knowledge about the availability and use of services to support victims of crime. BJS anticipates supporting efforts to conduct a pilot test of a new jail-data collection of individual-level inmate administrative records, and to continue its efforts to compile statistical information on defendants processed across stages of the federal criminal justice system.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Coverdell SAAs and units of local government may apply directly to BJA for funding. Approximately 85 percent of the funds available for Coverdell grants will be allocated among eligible States based on population (State base funds). The Coverdell statute requires that the remaining 15 percent of program funds be awarded competitively. A State or unit of local government that receives a Coverdell grant must use the grant for one or more of these six purposes: 1. To carry out all or a substantial part of a program intended to improve the quality and timeliness of forensic science or medical examiner/coroners office services in the State, including those services provided by laboratories operated by the State and those operated by units of local government within the State. 2. To eliminate a backlog in the analysis of forensic science evidence, including, among other things, a backlog with respect to firearms examination, latent prints, impression evidence, toxicology, digital evidence, fire evidence, controlled substances, forensic pathology, questioned documents, and trace evidence. 3. To train, assist, and employ forensic laboratory personnel and medicolegal death investigators, as needed to eliminate such a backlog. 4. To address emerging forensic science issues (such as statistics, contextual bias, and uncertainty of measurement) and emerging forensic science technology (such as high throughput automation, statistical software, and new types of instrumentation). 5. Funds may be used for personnel, computerization, laboratory equipment, supplies, accreditation, education, training, certification, facilities (the Coverdell law limits the amount of funds that may be used for the costs of a new facility or facilities), and administrative expenses (not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount of a Coverdell grant).

Applicant Eligibility:

State (includes District of Columbia, public institutions of higher education and hospitals); Local (includes State-designated Indian Tribes, excludes institutions of higher education and hospitals); Under the Coverdell program, SAAs may apply for both base (formula) and competitive funds. Units of local government may apply for competitive funds. Coverdell SAAs and units of local government may apply directly to BJA for funding. The Coverdell law (at 34 USC 10562) requires that, to request a grant, an applicant for Coverdell funds must submit: 1. A certification and description regarding a plan for forensic science laboratories. Each applicant must submit a certification that the State or unit of local government has developed a plan for forensic science laboratories under a program intended to improve the quality and timeliness of forensic science or medical examiner services in the State, including such services provided by the laboratories operated by the State and those operated by units of local government within the State. Applicants must also specifically describe the manner in which the grant will be used to carry out that plan. 2. A certification regarding use of generally accepted laboratory practices. Each applicant must submit a certification that any forensic laboratory system, medical examiners office, or coroners office in the State, including any laboratory operated by a unit of local government within the State, that will receive any portion of the grant amount (whether directly or through a subgrant) uses generally accepted laboratory practices and procedures established by accrediting organizations or appropriate certifying bodies. 3. A certification regarding forensic science laboratory accreditation. Each applicant must submit a certification that any forensic science laboratory system in the State (except with regard to any medical examiners office, or coroners office in the State), including any laboratory operated by a unit of local government within the State, that will receive any portion of the grant amount (whether directly or through a subgrant) either is accredited, or, is not so accredited, but will (or will be required in a legally binding and enforceable writing to) use a portion of the grant amount to prepare and apply for such accreditation not more than two (2) years after the date on which a grant is awarded under a fiscal years grant solicitation for the Paul Coverdell Forensic Science Improvement Grants Program. 4. A certification and description regarding costs of new facilities. Each applicant must submit a certification that the amount of the grant used for the costs of any new facility constructed as part of a program to improve the quality and timeliness of forensic science or medical examiner services will not exceed certain limitations set forth in the Coverdell law at 34 USC 10562. (See information on permissible expenses in the solicitation.) Applicants must also specifically describe any new facility to be constructed as well as the estimated costs of the facility.5. A certification regarding external investigations into allegations of serious negligence or misconduct. Each applicant must submit a certification that a government entity exists and an appropriate process is in place to conduct independent external investigations into allegations of serious negligence or misconduct substantially affecting the integrity of the forensic results committed by employees or contractors of any forensic laboratory system, medical examiner office, coroners office, law enforcement storage facility, or medical facility in the State that will receive a portion of the grant amount.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Police identification units (units operating outside of the crime laboratory function), or entities that engage exclusively in evidence collection and documentation, are not forensic science laboratories for these purposes. Medical examiner and coroner offices are treated as forensic science laboratories.

Credentials/Documentation:

The applicant must furnish the following along with the application for a grant: a certification that states there exists a plan for forensic science laboratories that is designed to improve the quality and timeliness of forensic science or medical examiner services; a certification that states each forensic laboratory, forensic laboratory system, medical examiner's office, or coroner's office that will receive any portion of a Coverdell grant uses generally accepted laboratory practices and procedures as established by accrediting organizations or appropriate certifying bodies; a certification regarding forensic science laboratory accreditation except with regard to any medical examiner's office, or coroner's office in the State; a certification that states that a government entity exists and an appropriate process is in place to conduct independent external investigations into allegations of serious negligence or misconduct by employees or contractors substantially affecting the integrity of forensic results, and resumes of key personnel. 2 CFR 200, Sub-part E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

The date that the application was sent to the SAA, or the reason such submission is not required, must be included in the application. A. Base Funds for States: Eighty-five percent of the funds available for Coverdell grants will be allocated among eligible States based on population (State base funds). USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

BJA is seeking applicants under three competitive discretionary grant programs: (2) Under the Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program and (1) Under Collaborative Crisis Response Training Program. Consistent with the goals of the authorizing legislation of the Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program (JMHCP), there are two separate programs available for application: 1) The Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program (BJA-2021-95004) and, 2) The Connect and Protect: Law Enforcement Behavioral Health Response Program (BJA-2021-21001). In FY 2021, there are two programs that focus on justice system and behavioral health responses to individuals with mental illness (MI) or co-occurring mental illness and substance abuse (CMISA) issues. Each program will focus on cross system collaboration between the justice system and behavioral health, and, an increased and enhanced response however, Connect and Protect, will focus on the earliest points in the system where law enforcement agencies and their behavioral health partners will design and implement a program to prevent people with MI and CMISA from further criminal justice system involvement. Under Connect, funds may be used for: 1) increasing cooperative efforts by justice system officials and service providers to connect individuals with MI or CMISA with treatment and social services 2) Improve officer and public safety through specialized training for public safety officers and mental health agencies in order to respond appropriately to individuals with MI or CMISA 3) Increase intergovernmental cooperation between state and local governments to address enhanced support to individuals with MI or CMISA. The JMHCP will support programming for those individuals who have justice system involvement beyond first contact, such as individuals booked into jail and working towards reentry or connected to community supervision. Under JMHCP, funds may be used for: 1) Increase cooperative efforts by justice system officials and service providers to connect individuals with MI or CMISA with treatment and social services. (This solicitation supports programs targeted at people inside the criminal justice system and returning to the community. For law enforcement-specific programs, see Connect and Protect: Law Enforcement Behavioral Health Response Program funded by JMHCP.) 2) Create or expand mental health courts or other court-based approaches to preliminarily qualified offenders. 3) Improve public safety through specialized cross-system training for public safety officials and mental health providers in order to respond appropriately to individuals with MI or CMISA. 3) Increase intergovernmental cooperation between state and local governments to address enhanced support to individuals with MI or CMISA. PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Fiscal Year 2020: Through OJPs Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), the Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program provided $18.6 million to support innovative cross-system collaboration for individuals with mental illnesses or co-occurring mental health and substance abuse disorders who come into contact with the justice system. The program funds collaborative projects between criminal justice and mental health partners to plan, implement or expand a justice and mental health program. Through BJAs Collaborative Mental Health and Anti-Recidivism Initiative, nearly $900,000 was provided to the Wisconsin Department of Corrections to establish a statewide pilot program that partners with the appropriate agencies within the state. The initiative will establish a collaborative prison anti-recidivism effort to provide comprehensive care before, during, and after incarceration for persons with serious mental illness, with a goal of reducing recidivism. Through BJAs Improving Justice and Mental Health Collaboration - Training and Technical Assistance to Grantees and the Field Program, $4.6 million was awarded to the Council of State Governments in Lexington, Kentucky, to provide training and technical assistance to law enforcement and other criminal justice agencies and their partner mental health and substance abuse authorities to reduce crime and recidivism associated with people with mental illnesses. OJPs Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention provided nearly $5 million through the Juvenile Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program to improve outcomes for youth with mental illness or co-occurring mental health and

Since the creation of the law enforcement strategic planning grants in 2017, 34 sites have received funding to train law enforcement and related staff members. The program supports 9 Law Enforcement-Mental Health Peer to Peer Learning Sites who serve as peer resources to grantees and communities across the country. In 2021, news sites will be added through a competitive selection process. OBJECTIVES:

Goals: The SCA supports state, local, and tribal governments and non-profit organizations in their work to reduce recidivism and improve outcomes for people returning from state and federal prisons, local jails, and juvenile facilities. Objectives: There are currently over 2.2 million individuals serving time in federal and state prisons, and millions of people cycle through local jails every year. Of those in state and federal prison, approximately 95 percent will be released and return to communities across the nation. A majority of these individuals have needs that, if unaddressed in prison, during the reentry process, and after release, will negatively impact their ability to live productive, pro-social, crime-free lives in the community. These needs include housing and employment challenges, relationship and family issues, and substance abuse and mental health problems. The Second Chance Act of 2007 (Pub. L. 110-199) helps to address these significant challenges by providing comprehensive responses to the significant number of incarcerated adults who are returning to communities from prison, jail, and juvenile residential facilities. Programs funded under the Second Chance Act help to promote public safety by ensuring that the transition individuals make from prison and jail to the community is successful. Please see the BJA website at <https://www.bja.gov/> for more information on Second Chance Act programs.

Renewals:

From 90 to 120 days. Yes, a grant can be supplemented or granted a no-cost extension, subject to BJA policy and contingent upon available appropriation.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory formula is not applicable to this assistance listing. Matching Requirements: Percent: 0%. For direct grants to states, if a state has measured and reinvested savings (either projected or actual costs saved or avoided) into evidence-based strategies to reduce recidivism and make communities safer (see Selection Criteria outlined in the Solicitation for specifics), this solicitation does not require a match. If such a state proposes a voluntary match amount, however, and OJP approves the budget, the total match amount incorporated into the approved budget becomes mandatory and subject to audit. If a state has not measured and reinvested savings (see Selection Criteria outlined in the Solicitation for specifics), a match is required, and the following requirements apply: The amount of the match must equal the amount of federal funds being sought. Match funds are subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the federal funds for this program. Applicants must identify the source of the non-federal funds and how they will use the funds. If a successful applicant proposed match exceeds the required match amount, and OJP approves the budget, the total match amount incorporated into the approved budget becomes mandatory and subject to audit. Applicants may satisfy this match requirement with cash, in-kind services, or a combination of the two. Match funds must be used for one or more of the states reinvestment strategies identified in the justice reinvestment process. For example, match funding can be used to expand or improve community-based treatment only if the JRI legislation or task force identified community-based treatment as a reinvestment priority. As another example, match funding could be used for skills-based trainings for probation officers if the states reinvestment strategies included more effective community supervision. Applicants must identify the target(s) of the reinvestment match with specificity, including, if applicable, names of agencies, service providers, or staff positions to be funded; a description of the kind of service to be provided or functions to be performed; what period of time will be covered; and amounts of funding. Applicants must document these commitments by including relevant attachments to the application. Example: For a federal award amount of $1,750,000, the required reinvestment match is $1,750,000. MOE requirements are not applicable to this assistance listing.

OBJECTIVES:

Under the Domestic Trafficking Victim Program, OVC has established the Improving Outcomes for Child and Youth Victims of Human Trafficking Program. The overarching goal of this program is to improve outcomes for children and youth who are victims of human trafficking by integrating human trafficking policy and programming at the state or tribal level and by enhancing a coordinated, multidisciplinary, and jurisdiction-wide approach to human trafficking. Under this Program, OJJDP has established the Childrens Advocacy Center Subgrant Program for Victims of Child Pornography under the Victims of Child Abuse Support for Childrens Advocacy Centers (CAC) Program. The goal of this program is to support local CACs, state chapters, and multidisciplinary teams (mdts) that provide a coordinated investigation and comprehensive response to child abuse, specifically to provide services and improve the response to children who are victims of child pornography, including those victims of child pornography who are also victims of sex trafficking. Successful applicants funded through the Improving Outcomes for Child and Youth Victims of Human Trafficking solicitation will engage in the following general activities in order to meet program goals and objectives: Develop and implement a jurisdiction-wide strategy to combat the identified greatest challenge areas in child and youth trafficking within the state or tribe; this strategy must be finalized and approved or enacted within the first year of the program start date. This strategy will also include developing a systematic method to screen for victimization across entities; developing protocols and procedures to ensure child and youth victims receive appropriate services; delivering staff training to implement and sustain the strategy jurisdiction-wide; and strengthening data collection across multiple systems of care. Develop, enhance, and coordinate programs and activities geared toward improving outcomes for child and youth victims of sex and labor trafficking. States or tribes should establish a program coordinator role to oversee program implementation and ensure coordination of anti-trafficking efforts in the state or tribal jurisdiction. Successful applicants funded through the Childrens Advocacy Center Subgrant Program for Victims of Child Pornography will: Release RFP(s) to award subgrants based on funding strategy that includes identified national needs. Provide training and technical assistance specific to the RFP as well as limited subject matter training for CACs and mdts. 16.922 Equitable Sharing Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:

CRIMINAL DIVISION, JUSTICE, DEPARTMENT OF
AUTHORIZATION:

The Controlled Substances Act, , 21 USC Code 881(e). Civil Asset Forfeiture Reform Act (CAFRA), , 18 USC Code 981(e)(2).

OBJECTIVES:

The Department of Justice Asset Forfeiture Program is a nationwide law enforcement initiative that removes the tools of crime from criminal organizations, deters crime and deprives wrongdoers of their criminal proceeds, and recovers property that may be used to compensate victims. Equitable sharing further enhances the law enforcement mission by fostering cooperation among federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies. Federal law authorizes the Attorney General to share federally forfeited property with participating state and local law enforcement agencies. The exercise of this authority is discretionary and limited by statute. The Attorney General is not required to share property in any case.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Direct Payments for Specified Use

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984 authorized federal officials to implement a national asset forfeiture program. One ancillary benefit of asset forfeiture is the authorization to share federal forfeiture proceeds with cooperating state and local law enforcement agencies, which provides agencies with valuable additional resources without burdening tax payer dollars. The Guide to Equitable Sharing for State and Local Law Enforcement Agencies (Guide) outlines the policies and procedures governing the receipt, use, maintenance and reporting of forfeited funds received through the Department of Justice Equitable Sharing Program (Program). The Guide is supplemented with the National Code of Professional Conduct for Asset Forfeiture and all Program participants must ensure compliance with the Code.

Applicant Eligibility:

Local (includes State-designated Indian Tribes, excludes institutions of higher education and hospitals; Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments; U.S. Territories and possessions; State; A state or local law enforcement agency meeting eligibility requirements set forth in the Guide and that directly participates in an investigation or prosecution resulting in a federal forfeiture may request an equitable share of the net proceeds of the forfeiture. For purposes of equitable sharing, the Department of Justice defines a law enforcement agency as a state or local government organization authorized to engage in, as its primary function, the investigation and apprehension, or the prosecution of individuals suspected or convicted of offenses against the criminal laws of the United States or of any state, county, municipality, or territory of the United States. A state National Guard generally does not meet the law enforcement agency criteria for participation in the Program because its primary mission is a military or other non-law enforcement purpose. However, a National Guard Counterdrug unit may qualify for sharing if: (1) It is a distinct unit of a state National Guard that has counterdrug activities as its primary mission and receives funding solely for this purpose; or (2) It is a military police or similar state National Guard unit that provides support to federal law enforcement agencies in counterdrug activities.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

U.S. Territories; State; Local; Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments; A state or local law enforcement agency meeting eligibility requirements set forth in the Guide and that directly participates in an investigation or prosecution that results in a federal forfeiture may request an equitable share of the net proceeds of the forfeiture.

Credentials/Documentation:

The federal deciding authority must approve all sharing requests and recommendations, including sharing percentages negotiated in a task force or other agreement, before sharing occurs. Sharing will only be awarded to agencies that are compliant Program participants in good standing with the policies set forth in the Guide. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Pre-application coordination is not applicable.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. After the seizure or forfeiture of an identified asset, a participating state or local agency meeting all requirements set forth in the Guide may request a share of the property by submitting a Form DAG-71, Equitable Sharing Request Form, to the federal seizing agency. A separate Form DAG-71 must be completed for each asset to be shared.

Award Procedure:

Federal law authorizes the Attorney General to share federally forfeited property with participating state and local law enforcement agencies. The exercise of this authority is discretionary and limited by statute. The Attorney General is not required to share property in any case. No sharing request or recommendation is final until approved by the federal deciding authority. The equitable sharing deciding authority levels are specified in the Guide.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional location, as appropriate for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 120 to 180 days. The DAG-71 form must be submitted within 60 days of seizure of the asset. Late submissions will be accepted and reviewed on a case by case basis. Sharing determinations are generally made 120 to 180 days after forfeiture. However, longer periods may be required in complex cases.

OBJECTIVES:

To promote, engage, and assist industry in the development, expansion, and improvement of Registered Apprenticeship. This program is designed to: provide skilled workers required by U.S. employers, ensure equal employment opportunities, and ensure the quality of all new and existing Registered Apprenticeship programs.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Advisory Services and Counseling, Project Grants (for specified projects), Salaries and Expenses, Training

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The Registered Apprenticeship system has been utilized to meet the needs of America's skilled workforce for more than 75 years. It is a unique, flexible training system that combines job-related-technical instruction with structured on-the-job learning experiences. Registered Apprenticeship is a leader in preparing American workers to compete in a global 21st Century economy because the system keeps pace with advancing technologies and innovations in training and human resource development. Under the Office of Apprenticeship (OA), apprenticeship training programs and apprentices are registered in 25 States. OA also provides technical assistance and works closely with State Apprenticeship Agencies (SAAs) in the remaining 25 States, the District of Columbia, Guam, and two territories that register programs and apprentices in accordance with Federal standards. OA provides information on existing and recommended standards of training in Registered Apprenticeship. The wage rates of apprentices in registered programs (Federal and State) are exempt from the prevailing wage requirements of the Davis-Bacon Act and the Service Contract Act. Registered programs are driven directly by the demands of the labor market. The training is industry-recognized, voluntarily sponsored by an individual business or an employer association, and may be partnered with a labor organization through a collective bargaining agreement. OA brings these entities together, as appropriate, to formulate Registered Apprenticeship training programs which meet the federal standards. There are no grant funds available to employers for construction of training facilities, curricula development, and apprentices' subsidies. Apprentices start working from day one with incremental wage increases as they become more proficient on the job. Apprenticeships range from one to six years. The "Earn and Learn" training model of Registered Apprenticeship provides an assigned mentor for the on-the-job learning. The related instruction, technical training, or other certified training is provided by training centers, technical schools, community colleges and/or institutions employing distance and computer-based learning approaches. The goal is to provide workers with advanced skill sets that meet the specific needs of employers. Upon completion of a Registered Apprenticeship program, participants receive an industry issued, nationally-recognized credential that certifies occupational proficiency, is portable, and can provide a pathway to the middle class. In many cases, these programs provide apprentices with the opportunity to simultaneously obtain secondary and post-secondary degrees. Registered Apprenticeship is highly active in traditional industries such as construction and manufacturing but it is also instrumental in training and development in high-growth industries such as advanced manufacturing, energy, health care, homeland security, information technology, telecommunications, and more. The Registered Apprenticeship system provides the opportunity for workers seeking high-skilled, high-paying jobs and for employers seeking to build a quality workforce. In this regard, the Registered Apprenticeship system meets the needs of both workers and employers.

FEDERAL AGENCY:

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION, LABOR,
DEPARTMENT OF
AUTHORIZATION:

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014., , Public Law 113-128

OBJECTIVES:

The Employment Service (ES) program brings together individuals looking for employment and employers looking for job seekers. It does this by providing a variety of services, which are available to all individuals. The program provides job seekers with career services, including labor exchange services, job search assistance, workforce information, referrals to employment, and other assistance. Employers can use the ES to post job orders and obtain qualified applicants.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Formula Grants, Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

FORMULA GRANTS:Wagner-Peyser Employment Services Grants: The Wagner-Peyser Act of 1933 established a nationwide system of public employment offices collectively known as the Employment Service (ES). The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), amended Wagner-Peyser, making the Employment Service part of the American Job Center (AJC) Network, also known as the One-Stop Career Center delivery system. AJCs provide an integrated array of high-quality services which allow workers, job seekers, and businesses to access services under one roof, with many services also offered through self-service electronic access, both at the Centers and remotely on the Internet. These services provide universal access to all including persons with barriers to employment.For Wagner-Peyser Employment Services Grants to States, funds must be used for career services, including labor exchange activities and the provision of labor market information. Training is not an allowable activity. Services available include assessments of career interests, career guidance when appropriate, job search workshops, and referral to jobs or training as appropriate. Services offered to employers in addition to referral of job seekers to job openings, include matching job requirements with applicants' experience, skills and other attributes; helping with special recruitment needs; assisting employers with hard-to-fill job orders; assisting with job restructuring; and helping employers assist laid-off workers. Under WIOA, the ES has increased its reemployment services to Unemployment Insurance (UI) claimants. Under Wagner-Peyser Act Section 7(b), 10 percent of the total sums allotted to each state workforce agency (SWA) are reserved for use by the Governor to provide performance incentives, services for individuals with special needs, and for the extra costs of exemplary models for enhancing state workforce staff with professional development and career advancement opportunities. Labor Market Information Grants to States: These fund the provision of state and local workforce information to job seekers, employers, and educators, job trainers, economic developers and others. Such information includes job opportunities, employment projections, workforce trends, career guidance, wage rates, and other data and information. The amended Wagner-Peyser Act under WIOA has enhanced collaboration among employment and training programs by States mandating co-location of ES offices with the one-stop offices. WIOA aligns the service delivery, planning and performance data within the one-stop delivery system.

Additional quarterly funding is based on actual workloads. Financing of administrative costs is accomplished through letter of credit draw downs needed to meet immediate cash requirements. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: letter

Reports:

Weekly, monthly, quarterly and yearly statistical reports of unemployment insurance workloads are required. Cash reports include the following transactions: Federal cash receipts/disbursements; Federal expenditures and un-obligated balance; recipient share of obligations and expenditures; program income. Additional expenditure data required includes other federal funds expended and real property proceeds expended. The comprehensive performance management system requires that a State Quality Service Plan (SQSP) be submitted as part of the application. Where performance is below the established minimum criteria, a corrective action plan (CAP) is required as part of the SQSP. The CAP identifies state activities and planning targets for performance improvement activities. Separate quarterly financial status reports are required for grants used for administration of each type of program. Data and progress towards performance targets are reviewed by the regional and national office staff. The SQSP and CAPs are reviewed quarterly by regional office staff.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. State workforce agencies are subject to audits by the Department of Labor or other authorized government agencies.

Records:

State laws and requirements are to be in conformity with Federal statutes. States are expected to report any legislative and regulatory changes to the Federal agency. National office staff provides guidance on the time frame for data submission and corrections to data reports. The state determines the time period to maintain tax records; however, the IRS recommends 4 years after the date tax is due or is paid, whichever is later. The recommendation for performance records is 3 years.

Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP),

FEDERAL AGENCY:

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION, LABOR,
DEPARTMENT OF

AUTHORIZATION:

Older Americans Act of 1965, , Older Americans Act of 2016 Unless otherwise stipulated, entities carrying out the project are subject to Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards found at 2 CFR Part 200 along with the OMB approved exceptions for DOL at 2 CFR Part 2900 published on December 19, 2014 in the Federal Register; Older Americans Act Reauthorization Act of 2016 published April 22, 2016; Interim Final Rule published December 1, 2017; Final Rule published December 26, 2010; and Training and Employment Guidance Letters., Title V, , Statute 79-218, Public Law 89-73, 42 USC Code 3056.

OBJECTIVES:

The Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) is a community service and work-based job training program for older Americans. Authorized by the Older Americans Act, the program provides training for low-income, unemployed seniors. Participants also have access to employment assistance through American Job Centers. SCSEP participants gain work experience in a variety of community service activities at non-profit and public facilities, including schools, hospitals, day-care centers, and senior centers. The program provides over 40 million community service hours to public and non-profit agencies, allowing them to enhance and provide needed services. Participants work an average of 20 hours a week and are paid the highest of federal, state or local minimum wage. This training serves as a bridge to unsubsidized employment opportunities for participants. Participants must be at least 55, unemployed, and have a family income of no more than 125% of the federal poverty level. Enrollment priority is given to veterans and qualified spouses, then to individuals who are over 65, have a disability, have low literacy skills or limited English proficiency, reside in a rural area, are homeless or at risk of homelessness, have low employment prospects, formerly incarcerated within the last five years, or have failed to find employment after using services through the American Job Center system.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Formula Grants, Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Entities carrying out the project use the funds to create and pay for part-time job training and work experience in community service assignments for unemployed persons age 55 and above whose income is not more than 125 percent of the poverty level. The individuals who are enrolled in the program receive work experience and skills training at host agencies, which are public agencies and/or private nonprofit organizations exempt from taxation under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. A portion of the funds may be used to provide participants with additional trainings, such as occupational skills training, on-the-job experience training, etc. (outside of the normal job-training assignments at a host agency) and supportive services. Participants may not train in projects involving political or sectarian activities, nor may participants displace any employed worker, nor perform work which impairs existing contracts for service. Entities carrying out the project must consult with appropriate area agencies on aging, with the State workforce development board and local workforce development board, and with other appropriate agencies and entities to promote coordination of activities. Additionally, each local project is required to coordinate its activities with training and other service providers under title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, including utilizing the one-stop delivery system of the local workforce development areas involved to recruit eligible individuals to ensure that the maximum number of eligible individuals will have an opportunity to participate in the project. The amount of Federal funds expended for enrollee wages and fringe benefits shall be no less than 75 percent of the grant (20 CFR Section 641.873) except in those instances in which a grantee has requested, and DOL has approved such request, to use not less than 65 percent of the grant funds to pay for participant wage and fringe benefits so as to use up to an additional 10 percent of grant funds for participant training and supportive services (42 USC 3056(c)(6)(C)(i)). The amount of Federal funds expended for the costs of administration during the program year shall be no more than 13.5 percent of the grant (20 CFR Section 641.867(a)). A waiver of this requirement to increase administrative expenditures to 15 percent may be granted by the DOL (20 CFR Section 641.867(b)). Grantees are required to negotiate share in infrastructure cost with required local partners in accordance with the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (Final Rule 20 CFR 679.370(k) The Secretary of Labor may reserve up to 1.5 percent of annual appropriation for pilots, demonstration, and evaluation activities and related technical assistance.

Each year in January, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) publishes the poverty and low-income guidelines based on the last calendar years increase in prices as measured by the Consumer Price Index. These numbers, multiplied by 125 percent, are the basis of low income for eligibility determinations as defined at Section 518(a)(3)(A) of the OAA Amendments of

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory Formula: Title PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE SENIOR COMMUNITY SERVICE EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM, Chapter 20, Part 641, Subpart d, Public Law P.L. 114-144. Matching Requirements: Percent: 0%. Requirement: Matching requirements are voluntary. The Department will pay no more than 90 percent of the total cost of activities carried out under a SCSEP grant. (OAA sec. 502(c)(1)). All SCSEP recipients, including Federal agencies if there is no statutory exemption, must provide or ensure that at least 10 percent of the total cost of activities carried out under a SCSEP grant (non-Federal share of costs) consists of allowable costs paid for with non-Federal funds. Recipients must determine the non-Federal share of costs in accordance with 29 CFR 97.24 for governmental units, or 29 CFR 95.23 for nonprofit and commercial organizations. The non-Federal share of costs may be provided in cash, or in-kind, or a combination of the two. (OAA 502 (0) (2)). A recipient may not require a subrecipient or host agency to provide non-Federal resources for the use of the SCSEP project as a condition of entering into a sub-recipient or host agency relationship. This does not preclude a sub-recipient or host agency from voluntarily contributing non-Federal resources for the use of the SCSEP project. The Department may pay all of the costs of activities in an emergency or disaster project or a project in an economically distressed area. (OAA 502(c) (1) (B)). This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. Additional Information: A community service assignment for a participant under title V of the OAA is permissible only when specific maintenance of effort requirements are met. Each project funded under title V: (1) Must not reduce the number of employment opportunities or vacancies that would otherwise be available to individuals not participating in the program; (2) Must not displace currently employed workers (including partial displacement, such as a reduction in the hours of non-overtime work, wages, or employment benefits); (3) Must not impair existing contracts or result in the substitution of Federal funds for other funds in connection with work that would otherwise be performed; and (4) Must not employ or continue to employ any eligible individual to perform the same work or substantially the same work as that performed by any other individual who is on layoff. (OAA 502(b) (1) (G)). See funding agency for further details..

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

SCSEP funds are allocated to and administered through grants to all state governors, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, and four territories, as well as competitively awarded to national non-profit agencies for services across the country. The national non-profit organizations compete for the awards every four years (subject to annual appropriations), with an optional one-year extension. ETA renews SCSEP state and territorial grant awards on an annual basis and SCSEP national grants on an annual basis during non-competitive years, which includes PY 2021 (as PY 2020 was a national competition award year). Each year, ETA requires grantees to submit a grant application that includes an SF-424, an SF-424A, the geographic areas to be served, a detailed budget narrative, a program narrative, signed programmatic assurances, and any optional special requests.

Records:

In accordance with the May 2013 Executive Order Making Open and Machine Readable the New Default for Government Information, the grant recipient, whenever practicable, must collect, transmit, and store Federal award-related information in open and machine-readable formats rather than in closed formats or on paper. Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to a Federal award must be retained for a period of three years from the date the final expenditure report was submitted (regardless if the documents are from the grant recipient or the subrecipient). There are situations that may extend the standard three-year record retention period and some specific types of records have their own record retention period-triggering activities. Some exceptions to the regular retention period include: written notification to extend, litigation, claim, audit, monitoring, real property and equipment, records transfer, indirect cost records, and WIOA title I complaints. The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021, Pub. In PY 2021, after reducing the appropriation by $1,123,000 for set-asides authorized by the Act, $403,877,000 is available for SCSEP program activities. PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Fiscal Year 2020: The SCSEP program provides work-based job training, support, and paid community service opportunities for low-income seniors with particularly intensive needs. Through the program, older workers gain critical soft skills and industry-specific skills, actively search for employment, and learn technology and internet skills, ultimately preparing them for unsubsidized employment opportunities after exit from the program. In PY 2019, SCSEP served nearly 48,000 older workers. In the early stages of the pandemic, ETA provided guidance and technical assistance to ensure that SCSEP grantees swiftly implemented measures to protect the health and safety of their participants, many of whom are particularly vulnerable given their age, socioeconomic conditions, and reliance on SCSEP wages. Measures included maximizing the use of available flexibilities to ensure SCSEP participants continued to receive critical support while they were unable to participate in community service assignments.

17.245 Trade Adjustment Assistance

FEDERAL AGENCY:

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION, LABOR,
DEPARTMENT OF
AUTHORIZATION:

The Trade Adjustment Assistance Reauthorization Act of 2015 (TAARA 2015), title IV of the Trade Preferences Extension Act of 2015 (Public Law 114-27), was signed into law by President Barack Obama on June 29, 2015. Unless otherwise stipulated, recipients are subject to Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards; Final Rule on December 26, 2013 and found at 2 CFR Part 200 along with the OMB approved exceptions for DOL at 2 CFR Part 2900 published on December 19, 2014 in the Federal Register., , Public Law 114-27

OBJECTIVES:

The Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) for Workers Program is a federal entitlement program that assists workers impacted by foreign trade. Through the provision of a number of employment-related benefits and services, the TAA Program provides trade-affected workers with opportunities to obtain the support, resources, skills, and credentials they need to return to the workforce in a good job in an in-demand industry. The program services include training, employment and case management services, job search allowances, relocation allowances, wage supplements for workers aged 50 and older, and Trade Readjustment Allowances (TRA).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Formula Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

State Workforce Agencies (SWAs) serve as agents of the United States and administer the worker adjustment assistance benefit provisions of the Trade Act. SWAs, through their American Job Centers (AJC), formerly known as One-Stop Career Centers or by a different name, and other local offices, provide assessments, employment counseling, and job placement services; job search and relocation assistance; and training. The weekly income support payments and wage supplements of TRA and A/RTAA, respectively, are administered under the Unemployment Insurance program (see CFDA 17.225). State unemployment compensation and extended benefits must be exhausted before TRA is paid to eligible claimants. Trade impacted workers are eligible to receive job search and relocation allowances. In addition to the costs of training, they may be paid subsistence and transportation allowances to attend approved training outside the normal commuting distance of a worker's regular place of residence.

Three workers of a company, a company official, a union or other duly authorized representative, or an AJC operator or partner may file that petition with the Department. In response to the filing, the Department initiates an investigation to determine whether foreign trade was an important cause of the workers job loss or threat of job loss. If the Department determines that the workers meet the statutory criteria for group certification of eligibility for the workers in the group to apply for TAA, the Department grants the petition and issues a certification.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Individual/Family; Unemployed; Once a member of a worker group is covered by a certification for eligibility to apply for TAA, the workers individually apply for benefits and services through the American Job Centers. TAA benefits and services have specific individual eligibility criteria that must be met, such as previous work history, unemployment insurance eligibility, and individual skill levels. The TAA program currently offers the following benefits and services to eligible individuals: training, weekly income support in the form of TRA, out-of-area job search and relocation allowances, case management and employment services, and wage supplement for qualified older workers through RTAA.

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Fiscal Year 2020: The Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) program works. Of the 6,301 TAA exiters who received training in FY 2020, approximately 76 percent (4,762) completed training and about 91 percent (4,324) of training completers received a credential. The fourth-quarter employment rate of those participants who completed training and received a credential were higher than those participants who did not, continuing a multi-year trend. These performance results demonstrate that even during a year of an economic crisis such as FY 2020, the TAA Program is vastly relevant in providing important benefits and services to help trade-affected workers obtain reemployment.

17.258 WIOA Adult Program

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), Adult Programs,

FEDERAL AGENCY:

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION, LABOR,
DEPARTMENT OF

AUTHORIZATION:

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014.The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) was signed into law on July 22, 2014, and went into effect on July 1, 2015. It amends the Wagner-Peyser Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The regulations were published in the Federal Register on August 19, 2016. The regulations for the Title I WIOA Adult, Dislocated Worker and Youth programs are at 20 CFR Parts 680 through 683, as well as the joint Department of Labor and Department of Education regulations found at 20 CFR parts 676 through 678., Public Law 113-128, , Public Law 113-128

OBJECTIVES:

The Adult Program is one of the six core programs authorized by Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). The program serves individuals and helps employers meet their workforce needs. It enables workers to obtain good jobs by providing them with job search assistance and training opportunities. WIOA establishes a priority requirement with respect to funds allocated to a local area for adult employment and training activities. American Job Center staff, when using WIOA Adult funds to provide individualized career services and training services, must give priority to recipients of public assistance, other low-income individuals, and individuals who are basic skills deficient. Performance program measures include: 1. Employed 2nd Quarter After Exit Quarter; 2. Employed 4th Quarter After Exit Quarter; 3. Median Earnings Second Quarter After Exit; 4. Credential Attainment Rate; 5. Measurable Skills Gains; and Effectiveness in Serving Employers. The employment goals are measured by using the Unemployment Insurance Wage Records Information System whenever possible.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Formula Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

WIOA specifies that most services for adults will be provided through the American Job Center Network, also known as one-stop career centers or workforce centers. It authorizes that funds be used to provide career services, which are classified into two categories: basic and individualized services. Basic services are available to all job seekers and include labor exchange services, labor market information, job listings, and information on partner programs. Individualized services include training and supportive services, such as child care and needs-related payments. These are made available to individuals after an interview, assessment or evaluation determines that the individual requires training to obtain employment. These training services will be linked to job opportunities in their communities, including occupational training, work-based training and basic skills training. To promote customer choice and involvement in career decisions, some participants use an "Individual Training Account (ITA)" to select an appropriate training program from an eligible training provider.

In the H-1B1 and E-3 programs, however, a nonimmigrant worker petition is not needed for the initial visa issuance and the foreign national seeking to enter the United States may use proof of a labor condition application certification in support of the visa application filed with the Department of State. 2 CFR 200, Sub-part E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Fiscal Year 2020: When FEMA declared COVID-19 to be a national disaster situation, it triggered eligibility for all states and territories to apply for Disaster Recovery as well as Employment Recovery National Dislocated Worker Grants to help address the economic and workforce-related impacts of the pandemic. These grants were able to provide resources to create disaster-relief employment opportunities for unemployed individuals to help address the health and safety impacts of COVID-19, as well as the significant humanitarian needs caused by the pandemic. To address the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, ETA awarded 64 National Dislocated Worker Grants (44 Disaster Recovery and 20 Employment Recovery) totaling nearly $398 million. Grants ranged from $102,000 to approximately $40.4 million. In addition to COVID, the DWG program continues to provide resources to address natural disaster such as wildfires, hurricanes, and the Texas Ice Storm; these grants help communities affected recover from the impacts of the disaster and put affected individuals to work to provide income for their families as well as helping to clean up from the effects of the disaster. In 2020 11 new or continuing grants were funded to address a range of natural disasters, totaling approximately $47.6 million. The funding range for these grants was $470,000 to approximately $14.7 million. And DWG resources continue to be awarded to help support individuals and communities affected by the opioid crisis through the National Health Emergency Disaster Recovery DWGs. These grants have been ongoing for several years, and in 2020 ETA awarded 3 new grants totaling $5.9 million.

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Dislocated Worker Program, FEDERAL AGENCY:

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ADMINISTRATION, LABOR,
DEPARTMENT OF
AUTHORIZATION:

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014. The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) was signed into law on July 22, 2014, and went into effect on July 1, 2015. It amends the Wagner-Peyser Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The regulations were published in the Federal Register on August 19, 2016. The regulations for the Title I WIOA Adult, Dislocated Worker and Youth programs are at 20 CFR Parts 680 through 683, as well as the joint Department of Labor and Department of Education regulations found at 20 CFR parts 676 through 678., , Public Law 113-128

OBJECTIVES:

The Dislocated Worker (DW) program is one of the six core programs authorized by Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). The purpose of the WIOA Dislocated Worker (DW) program is to help dislocated workers get back to work as quickly as possible and overcome barriers to employment. When individuals become dislocated workers as a result of job loss, mass layoffs, global trade dynamics or transitions in economic sectors, the DW program provides services to assist them in re-entering the workforce. States can reserve up to 25 percent of their DW funds for Rapid Response activities. The program's success is measured by the following core indicators of performance: 1. Employment Rate - 2nd Quarter After Exit; 2. Employment Rate - 4th Quarter After Exit; 3. Median Earnings - 2nd Quarter After Exit; 4. Credential Attainment Rate; 5. Measurable Skill Gains.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Formula Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

WIOA specifies that most services for adult and dislocated workers will be provided through the American Job Center (AJC) Network, also known as the one-stop career center system. It authorizes that funds be used to provide career services, which are classified into two categories: basic and individualized services. While some job seekers may only need self-service or other basic career services such as labor exchange services, others may need more comprehensive services, such as individualized services, which include career planning, and developing an individual employment plan outlining needs and goals of the job seeker. Participants will also receive training services linked to job opportunities in their communities. To promote customer choice and involvement in career decisions, participants use an "Individual Training Account" (ITA) to select an appropriate training program from an eligible training provider list (ETPL). WIOA also authorizes the provision of supportive services (e.g. transportation and child care assistance) to enable an individual to participate in the program.

Applicant Eligibility:

State (includes District of Columbia, public institutions of higher education and hospitals); U.S. Territories and possessions; Under WIOA, the entities eligible to receive formula-based funding from the Department are the 50 states, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia and the outlying areas. PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Fiscal Year 2020: States allocate Dislocated Worker funds to their local workforce development areas to provide career and training services to individuals who have lost their jobs through no fault of their own, including separating service members, military spouses, and displaced homemakers. Additionally, the program allows for states to reserve up to 25 percent of their Dislocated Worker funds for Rapid Response activities. Rapid Response is a pro-active, business-focused, and flexible strategy to help growing companies access an available pool of skilled workers and can respond to layoffs by quickly coordinating services and aid to companies and their workers. For the first three quarters of Program Year 2020, the WIOA Dislocated Worker program served more than 702,000 participants; of those, more than 70,000 received training, and more than 62,000 were low income individuals. Of the more than 70,000 in training, 52.3 percent had a Measurable Skill Gain and over 70 percent of exiters from training attained an industry-recognized credential. After exiting the program, 61.9 percent of exiters were employed 2 quarters after exit. Exiters who were employed had a median earnings of $8,535 in the 2nd quarter after exit (months 4-6).
