EMPLOYEE-VENDOR RELATIONSHIP CERTIFICATION

An affirmative response in the following certification will require the University to evaluate your offer to determine whether a conflict of interest exists. A determination that a conflict of interest exist may necessitate rejection of your offer. The fact that an employee or former employee of Stanford University, or near relative of an employee owns, controls, or has a significant financial interest in your organization will not, in and of itself, necessarily be cause for rejection of your offer.

DEFINITIONS

Employee: Any individual who is presently employed by any entity of Stanford University, including the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center. Former Employee: An individual who has retired or separated from Stanford University, was dismissed, or was otherwise formerly employed by the University.

Near Relative: The employee's spouse, child, parent, brother, sister, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of a Stanford University employee, household member, and step-relatives in the same relationship.

Near relative also includes the domestic partner of a university employee and a relative of the domestic partner in one of the foregoing relationships.

Control: Having some right to direct or transfer property (even though there exists no actual title to the property, such as trusteeship, power of appointment, or contract) that could be the basis for influence upon the selection or decisions of an organization's management personnel.

Significant Final Interest: Owning or controlling more than 10 percent of the organization.
