Site Visit and Pre-proposal Conference

Offerors are encouraged to participate in a site visit to satisfy themselves regarding all general and local condition that may affect the price of contract performance to the extent that the information is reasonably obtainable. Due to the number of locations covered under this contract, it is not feasible to conduct a site visit at all locations. As a result, one (1) location has been chosen for the site visit.

Potential offerors planning to attend the site visit are required to submit company, individual's name, phone number and email address in advance for the access to the facility. One form of government issued picture identification shall be required to be shown upon arrival. Please submit the aforementioned information to Joseph Ohene via joseph.ohene@cbp.dhs.gov no later than 6pm eastern time, Friday January 27, 2023. An email will be sent to each attendee with the specific time for the site visit. The date and location for the site visit can be found below.
