

2023 RNIB British Braille Magazines

Draft Statement of Work

C1. OVERVIEW / BACKGROUND. The Library of Congress (Library) requires contract support to deliver braille magazines to its patrons in the United States from the Royal National Institute of the Blind (RNIB), London, England. The National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS) maintains a collection of braille and audio books and magazines that are distributed to over 500,000 blind and handicapped patrons.

C2. SCOPE. This proposed purchase is for four (4) braille magazines produced by the Royal National Institute for the Blind: Braille Chess, Conundrum, Short Stories, and Music. There are no other vendors that produce these braille magazines, anywhere in the world.

C3. REQUIREMENTS. Magazines will be provided at their periodic interval to a designated location as specified by NLS for distribution to the NLS patrons.

C3.1. Braille Chess Magazine – 125 copies per quarter (500 annually)

C3.2. Short Stories – 465 copies per month (5580 annually)

C3.3. Braille Music Magazine – 220 copies per month (2640 annually)

C3.4. Braille Conundrum – 475 copies per month (5700 annually)
