Evaluation Factors for Award

ADDENDUM TO FAR 52.212-2 - Evaluation--Commercial Products and Commercial Services. (NOV 2021)

- (a) The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered. The Government also reserves the right to not award a contract in response to the solicitation.
- (b) The Government will review all proposals for compliance with the solicitation, to include compliance with all instructions, provisions, and clauses.
- (c) The compliant proposals will then be evaluated in order of lowest to highest offered price. The following factors shall be used to evaluate offers: Price, Technical, and Past Performance. The Price, Technical, and Past Performance factors are equal in importance. The Technical and Past Performance factors are approximately equal to the Price factor.

(1) Technical Factor: The Government will evaluate the technical submission for acceptability based on the requirements with Performance Work Statement (PWS), Paragraph 4, Program Requirements and Responsibilities include but are not limited to (Attachment 1).

The Government will evaluate the technical proposal and assign a technical rating per Table 1 below:

	Table 1. Technical Ratings
Rating	Description/Definition
Acceptable	Proposal clearly meets the minimum requirements of the solicitation and as specified in the PWS, Paragraph 4 (Attachment 1).
Unacceptable	Proposal does not clearly meet the minimum requirements of the solicitation and as specified in the PWS Paragraph 4 (Attachment 1).

(2) Price Factor - The Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total price for all options to the total price for the basic requirement. The total price will be determined fair and reasonable IAW FAR 13.106-3(a). The Government may determine that an offer is not awardable if the option prices are significantly unbalanced. Evaluation of options shall not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s).

(3) Past Performance Factor - The Government will assess the offeror's present and past performance records for the technically acceptable proposals only. The three aspects of the Past Performance evaluation include: Recency, Relevancy, and Quality. The Past Performance information shall meet the recency and relevancy criteria before it can be considered. To be considered recent, the service must have been ongoing for at least 6 months within a 3-year period prior to the issuance date of this solicitation. The Government will not evaluate any past performance information that fails to meet the recency criteria. To be considered relevant, the references should reflect services performed that are the same or similar services in nature as required in this solicitation.

After evaluation of the Past Performance information, the Government will assign the offeror an overall rating in accordance with Table 2 below.

Table 2. Past Performance Rating
Rating	Description
Acceptable	Based on the offeror's performance record, the Government has a reasonable expectation that the offeror will successfully perform the required effort, or the offeror's performance record is unknown
Unacceptable	Based on the offeror's performance record, the Government does not have a reasonable expectation that the offeror will be able to successfully perform the required effort.

(d) An award will be issued to the RESPONSIBLE offeror (IAW FAR 9.104-1) who proposes the lowest price, complies with the solicitation requirements, is technically acceptable, and has no negative past performance feedback.

(e) A written notice of award or acceptance of an offer, emailed or otherwise furnished to the successful offeror within the time for acceptance specified in the offer, shall result in a binding contract without further action by either party. Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.
