52.212-2 Evaluation – Commercial Products and Commercial Services (NOV 2021)

(a) The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered. The following factors shall be used to evaluate offers:

TECHNICAL
PRICE
DELIVERY DATE
PAST PERFORMANCE

Technical Capability-

Evaluation criteria consist of factors and sub-factors. The offers will be evaluated under three evaluation factors and sub-factors.

a. Sub-Factor 1: Salient Characteristics

- b. Sub-Factor 2: Shipping to delivery addresses by need date as stated in the Schedule of Items.

| Table A-1. Technically Acceptable/Unacceptable Ratings | |
|---|---|
| Rating | Description |
| Acceptable | Offer clearly meets the minimum requirements of the solicitation. |
| Unacceptable | Offer does not clearly meet the minimum requirements of the solicitation. |

Past Performance

The Government will evaluate the Offeror’s past performance on same or similar work and will consider information submitted by the Offeror, obtained from references or obtained by the Government from other sources that is relevant to the following elements:

- (i) Quality of Product.

- (ii) Timeliness of Performance.

In evaluating past performance, the Government may consider the quantity and relevance of the work for which past performance data is collected, the currency and relevance of the information collected, the context of the data and the general trends of Offeror’s performance.

In accordance with Federal Acquisition Regulations, Offerors that have no record of past performance will receive a neutral rating. The Government will also consider past performance information provided for predecessor companies and personnel who have relevant experience.

In addition, acceptability will also be based on either the Contractor Performance Assessment Reporting Systems (CPARS) ratings, and the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System (FAPIS). If an offeror has no record of past performance ratings in the above system, this factor will be treated as neutral, resulting in an acceptable rating. The failure of an offeror to meet the requirements of a factor will result in an unacceptable rating.

| Table A-2. Past Performance Ratings | |
|--|---|
| Rating | Description |
| Acceptable | Offeror clearly meets the requirements of the solicitation. |
| Unacceptable | Offeror does not clearly meet the requirements of the solicitation. |

Price

Price is not formally scored but is the primary evaluation factor for determining award. The government expects competitive offers to be submitted for this procurement and will use these competitive offers to determine price reasonableness. If competitive offers are not received, the Government reserves the right to utilize other methods identified in the FAR to determine price reasonableness. The Government may award a contract on the basis of initial offers received, without discussions. Therefore, each initial offer should contain the offeror's best terms from a price and technical standpoint. The Government reserves the right to make an award to other than the lowest priced offeror or to the offeror with the highest non-price evaluation if the Contracting Officer determines that to do so would result in the greatest value to the Government.

Proposals that do not address one or more criteria or subfactors, may not be considered further for award.

(1) Completeness. Each offeror is required to provide complete pricing for each contract line identified.

Definitions.

- Reasonableness. A price is reasonable if, in its nature and amount, it does not exceed that which would be incurred by a prudent person in the conduct of competitive business.
- Completeness/Accuracy. The offeror is in compliance with the Schedule of Items contained within the solicitation.

The Government may perform a comparative evaluation (comparing offers to each other) to elect the contractor that provides the best value, considering the evaluation factors in this solicitation.

(b) A written notice of award or acceptance of an offer, mailed or otherwise furnished to the successful offeror within the time for acceptance specified in the offer, shall result in a binding contract without further action by either party. Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether or not there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.

52.252-5 Authorized Deviations in Provisions (NOV 2020)
