The 440 Cut-to-Length dispenser is designed and recommended for packaging departments and insulation contractors that require high volumes of pre-cut strapping and banding material. It reduces labor costs and eliminates strap waste. Simply enter the length of the cut and the quantity of straps into the digital keypad. The dispenser does the rest. The 440 Cut-to-Length is industry proven on jobs requiring 50,000 cuts per day. Solid state controls and working parts designed for years of rough use provide this machine with an exceptional service life. Solid state control with continuous LED readouts for the strap length and strap count, cycle hold feature to check strap length, and a reset feature that recalls the original strap count without resetting the display, all provide for ease and flexibility of operation. The membrane type touch pad seals out dust and dirt, extending service life, while providing positive data entry.

Five Year Limited Warranty

The seller warrants this product to be free of defects in material and workmanship and according to pre-determined order specifications in which the machine was designed. The warranty is active for five years from the date of shipment. It does not apply to parts that require replacement during the warranty period, due to normal use. The seller will only pass on the guarantees/warranties of specific parts manufactured by others for the machine, i.e.: electric motors, cylinders, valves, beatings, etc.). In no event is the seller liable for labor or consequential damages to the machine
